DESIGN SOCKET STRIP

POWERSOCKET 505

MSRP (19%): 59.99

The Oehlbach Powersocket 505 is a high quality multiple socket strip with solid aluminium housing. With the help of the 1.5m power cable supplied and the six individual slots, numerous devices at the central entertainment location can be supplied with power in a stable and secure manner. Thanks to the compact design, the bar can be set up flexibly and without any problems. The safety sockets, which are fitted with a child safety lock, are also arranged at a 45° angle for easy insertion and re-insertion. For multimedia devices, smartphones and tablets, the Powersocket 505 also offers two USB charging sockets integrated on the side with a total charging current of up to 2.4 amps. The socket strip is switched on and off via an illuminated safety switch.
